Career Exploration and a Touch of the Old South

C (Grade 6-8), S (Grade 9-10), A (Grade 11-12)

Ever thought about what you want to do when you grow up? Do you know about the people, tools and resources available to explore those thoughts and ideas? Have you thought about what it takes to make your career hopes for the future a reality? Would you also be excited to learn about an old plantation and the lives and times of its past owners?

Discover how to explore your own goals and dreams while exploring the grounds of a 19th-century plantation. Fun and exciting hands on activities will be yours to enjoy as you not only learn how to make your dreams a reality, but spend some time learning about a very special place full of exciting history and beautiful landscapes.

NOTE: Scouts to wear sturdy shoes as there will be some hiking involved.
