Refurbished in 2003, the deluxe riverboat M.V. CEZANNE is ideally suited for cruising the scenic waterways of France. Her fifty cabins are beautifully furnished and feature either portholes (on the lower, Soane Deck) or full-length windows (on the upper, Rhone Deck). The spacious Sun Deck is a perfect place to relax and enjoy the passing scenery. The dining room offers fine Continental cuisine as well as local specialties.

Other amenities include a lounge, library, gift shop, bar and beauty salon, as well as an infirmary with a doctor on board. Each cabin has built-in closets, a shower, telephone, audio entertainment center and television.
TERMS & CONDITIONS

A Specially negotiated, non-refundable, round-trip, Economy Class, APEX airfare via Air France will be offered. Academic Arrangements Abroad will be pleased to assist with air travel arrangements. Passengers making their own flight arrangements may request individual transfers at a supplemental cost. Frequent flyer miles cannot be accepted in conjunction with this program.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE  A deposit of $1,500 per person, payable to Academic Arrangements Abroad (of which $350 is non-refundable for administrative fees) is required at the time of reservation. Final payment, by check only, must be received 120 days prior to departure.

HEALTH  All participants must be in good health and fully able to participate in all tour activities. This program involves touring days with considerable walking over uneven terrain, climbing stairs at monuments and other locations not handicapped accessible, and climbing in and out of various conveyances. Any condition that may require assistance or special medical attention must be reported at the time of your reservation. There is no elevator aboard M.V. Cezanne.

INSURANCE  Trip Cancellation / Emergency Medical Evacuation / Baggage / Accident and Sickness Insurance Protection is Strongly Recommended. Cancellation Penalties are strictly enforced. Sweet Briar College will send an insurance application upon receipt of deposit, although you may select an alternative insurer of your choice.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY & COSTS  The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of Sweet Briar College and Academic Arrangements Abroad. All prices quoted are based on prevailing airfares, fuel prices and currency exchange rates in effect as of September 2007 and are subject to change without notice. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are at the expense of the individual.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAUSE  The participation of Sweet Briar College (SBC), is limited to educational sponsorship of the program described in this brochure (The Program). Academic Arrangements Abroad (AAA) acts only as an agent for the participant with respect to transportation, accommodations and all other services, relating to The Program. AAA, SBC and/or their agents assume no responsibility or liability for any act, error or omission, or for any injury, loss, accident, delay or irregularity which may be occasioned by reason of any defect in any aircraft, ship, train, bus or other carrier, or through neglect or default of any subcontractor or other third party, which may be used wholly or in part in the performance of their duty to the participants of The Program. The passage ticket issued by the carrier is the sole contract between the participant and the carrier. Nor will AAA or SBC, and/or their agents be responsible for loss, injury, damages or expenses to persons or property, due to illness, weather, strikes, local laws, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, acts of nature or other such causes in connection with The Program or anything beyond their reasonable control. AAA is not responsible for transportation or other program delays and changes, not additional expenses or loss of time that may be incurred. In the event it becomes necessary or advisable for the comfort or well-being of the participants, or for any reason whatsoever, to alter the itinerary at any time, without notice to the participants, such alterations will be made without penalty to AAA or SBC. Additional expenses, if any, shall be borne by the participants. Baggage and personal effects are the sole responsibility of the participant at all times. AAA and SBC reserve the right to accept or decline any person as a participant at any time, or to require any participant to withdraw from The Program at their own expense when such an action is determined by AAA or SBC to be in the best interest of the participant’s health and safety, or the general welfare of the other participants.

CANCELLATION POLICY  AAA must strictly adhere to its cancellation policy to offset costs incurred prior to the commencement of The Program, which may include, but are not limited to: advance payments to land operators; ship charters; communication expenses; development/promotional expenses; and the loss of time that might have permitted resale of reserved space. All cancellations must be made in writing to the offices of AAA and are subject to a $350 non-refundable administrative fee. All refunds are limited to amounts actually received by AAA and are the sole responsibility of AAA; SBC shall have no liability for refunds. At the time AAA receives written notification of cancellation, the following cancellation charges will apply: cancellations received between 120 and 91 days prior to departure, $1,500 per person; those received between 90 and 61 days before departure, $2,500 per person; no refunds will be given for cancellations received within 60 days of departure. No refunds are given for cancellation on or after the day of departure, or for unused portions of the tour, for any reason. Air cancellation charges, if any, will be assessed in accordance with airline regulations. All group fare tickets must be issued no less than 30 days prior to departure. NOTE: Neither AAA nor SBC shall be liable for any airline cancellation penalties incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable ticket. In the case of a cancellation due to shortage of participants, AAA will attempt to notify all participants at least 45 days prior to departure. However, AAA reserves the right to cancel The Program prior to departure for any reason and, in such case, reimbursement of refundable costs of the trip by AAA shall constitute full settlement with the participant. In the unlikely event that a dispute arises between a participant and AAA or SBC, the following conditions will apply: (a) the dispute will be settled by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association in New York, NY; (b) the dispute shall be governed by New York Law; (c) the maximum amount of recovery to which a participant shall be entitled under any and all circumstances will be the sum of all monies actually received from the participant by AAA. The participant agrees that this is a fair and reasonable limitation on the damages, of any sort whatsoever, that a participant may suffer. Upon payment of the deposit to AAA, the participant agrees to be bound by the above terms and conditions.

President’s Trip
JUNE 3 TO 14, 2008
Dear Sweet Briar Alumnae and Friends,

Since 1948, Sweet Briar women have been foregoing their beloved home in the foothills of Virginia’s Blue Ridge mountains for a year in cosmopolitan Paris — an experience that has proven pivotal in many of their lives.

Whether you were a Junior Year in France participant or wish you had been, we invite you to commemorate the 60th anniversary of this remarkable program with a delightful French voyage. Explore the historic and cultural ties between France and America with Dr. Elisabeth S. Muhlenfeld, President of Sweet Briar College, and her husband Larry Wollan. Also traveling with us will be Yale professor Alastair Minnis, a specialist in medieval literature.

From the splendid Hotel Normandy in Deauville, visit key sites associated with D-Day, including the moving American Military Cemetery. At the Peace Museum in Caen, pay homage to the countries involved in the Battle of Normandy. We then drive to Rouen, with its magnificent cathedral, stopping en route to visit the picturesque village of Honfleur.

In Rouen, embark the intimate 5-star M.V. Cezanne, privately chartered for a scenic cruise along the Seine. During our week-long river journey we will call at the seaport city of Le Havre for a private visit to a nearby family garden; Les Andelys, with the majestic ruins of Château Gaillard; and Giverny, where we will walk in Monet’s glorious gardens. On an excursion to the Château of Versailles see the legendary Hall of Mirrors, site of WWI Peace Treaty.

Our cruise ends in Paris, favorite city of America’s Founding Fathers, where we will be docked for two nights. There will be time in Paris to revisit your favorite haunts and to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the Junior Year in France at Reid Hall, where generations of Sweet Briar students have studied.

We do hope you will join this President’s Trip to France, co-sponsored by the Harvard Alumni Association and the Association of Yale Alumni.

Sincerely,

Louise Swiecki Zingaro, ’80

A VOYAGE THROUGH AMERICA’S FRENCH HERITAGE
NORMANDY TO PARIS ABOARD THE CEZANNE

June 3 to 14, 2008

NEW YORK | PARIS

Tuesday, June 3  Depart on an overnight flight to Paris.

PARIS | DEAUVILLE

Wednesday, June 4  Arrive in Paris this morning and transfer by private motorcoach to Deauville for three nights at the renowned Hotel Normandy, overlooking the sea. The afternoon is at leisure. Gather for introductory remarks and a welcome dinner at the hotel.

DEAUVILLE

Thursday, June 5  Attend a breakfast lecture before we depart for historic Caen, whose Norman treasures have survived the centuries. Visit the Peace Museum, which pays homage to the nations involved in the 1944 Battle of Normandy, and continue to nearby Bayeux, the first town to be liberated on D-Day. Enjoy a special lunch at Le Lion d’Or, a restaurant popular with Roosevelt and Churchill during World War II. This afternoon visit the Museum of the Battle of Normandy and then view the exquisite Bayeux Tapestry. Dinner and the evening are at leisure in Deauville.

DEAUVILLE

Friday, June 6  On this 64th anniversary of the Allied invasion, travel to Pointe du Hoc, where U.S. Army Rangers scaled 100-foot-high cliffs to silence the German guns that threatened the D-Day operation. Continue to the moving American Military Cemetery overlooking Omaha Beach. In nearby Arromanches lunch is at a restaurant with a great view of the port. Then visit the Musée du Débarquement and stop at the newly opened Pegasus Bridge Museum, housing military artifacts related to the capture of this bridge during liberation. It is now possible to walk across the original Pegasus Bridge, which is preserved on the grounds of the museum. Dinner is at the hotel.
DEAUVILLE | ROUEN

Saturday, June 7  “Dearest of my dreams” is how Baudelaire described the fishing village of Honfleur, which has long attracted artists, writers and musicians. The great Norman expeditions of the 16th and 17th centuries embarked from here, and the picturesque streets are lined with timber-framed merchants’ houses that recall this maritime history. In Honfleur we will visit St. Catherine’s Church, constructed by local shipbuilders at the end of the Hundred Years’ War. Then view Impressionist works at the Boudin Museum. Lunch and the afternoon are at leisure in this charming town. Drive to Rouen to embark the Cezanne. Following a tea time lecture, dinner is served on board.

ROUEN

Sunday, June 8  Today we discover the medieval city of Rouen. A walking tour will include the cathedral, a masterpiece of High Gothic architecture and favorite subject of Monet, and the Place de Vieux Marché, where Joan of Arc was burned at the stake. You may wish to return to the ship or enjoy the afternoon at leisure in Rouen. This evening the captain hosts a welcome reception and dinner.

LE HAVRE

Monday, June 9  Awake this morning in Le Havre, a seaport city devastated during the Battle of Normandy and rebuilt in Modernist style by Oscar Niemeyer. Depart for Varengeville for a visit to a private family estate, Les Bois des Moutiers, where we are also invited for a light lunch. The house, designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens, is set in superb gardens which open onto the shore. Returning along the coast to Le Havre, pass the cliffs of Étretat, often a subject of Monet’s paintings. Then tour the Musée des Beaux-Arts André Malraux, with paintings by Degas and Renoir. Dinner is aboard the ship, which sails in the late evening.

CAUDEBECE-EN-CAUX

Tuesday, June 10  Step ashore at Caudebec-en-Caux to visit St. Wandrille Benedictine abbey, founded in 649 C.E. At a sung morning mass we will hear the monks’ traditional Gregorian chants. Return to the Cezanne for lunch. This afternoon attend lectures by accompanying faculty. The evening features a performance of “Music of the ’40s.”

LES ANDELYS | VERNON (GIVERNY)

Wednesday, June 11  Arrive this morning in Les Andelys to discover the hilltop ruins of Château Gaillard, commissioned by Richard the Lionheart in the 11th century. Enjoy lunch on board as we cruise to the pleasant town of Vernon. Drive to the village of Giverny to view Claude Monet’s home, which remains largely unchanged since 1926. See the colorful gardens that were an inspiration for many of his paintings. Continue to the nearby Château de La Roche-Guyon, ancestral home of the La Rochefoucauld family. Philosopher and friend of America, the affable young duke translated the Declaration of Independence into French and collaborated with Benjamin Franklin to translate various state constitutions. Dinner is on board.
CONFLANS

Thursday, June 12  This morning the ship docks in the old shipping town of Conflans. An excursion is arranged to the nearby Villa Savoye, considered by many to be the seminal work of Le Corbusier. Lunch is on board as the Cezanne cruises to Paris. Alternatively, drive to Versailles for a full-day excursion with lunch. Walk through the magnificent classical gardens created by Le Nôtre for Louis XIV, and visit the newly restored Hall of Mirrors, where the treaty that ended World War I was signed. Rejoin the Cezanne in Paris in time for dinner followed by a concert.

PARIS

Friday, June 13  Depart for a morning tour in Paris, following in the footsteps of the early American delegation to France, which included Benjamin Franklin, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. The afternoon is at leisure, perhaps to visit one of the city’s outstanding museums or linger in one of the many inviting sidewalk cafes. In the evening the captain hosts us at a festive farewell dinner.

PARIS | NEW YORK

Saturday, June 14  Disembark the Cezanne after breakfast and continue to the airport for the flights to New York, arriving in the early afternoon.
